Disaster Management: Global Pandemic and Its Impact

Binghamton University, Binghamton, N.Y., U.S.A.
Jan. 25-27, 2023 (in person and via Zoom)

Innovative Technologies Complex
Center of Excellence, Room 1011
85 Murray Hill Rd.
Vestal, NY 13850, USA

Join us for the International Conference on Disaster Management:
Global Pandemic and Its Impact.

Presenters from the United States and abroad will explore topics including:

- What impact do global pandemics like COVID-19 have on the socioeconomic, political, psychological, educational and environmental aspects of our society?
- How does this change at the local, national and international level?
- What can be done in the future to prevent and respond to such pandemics?
- What about the impact on impoverished countries, especially considering the availability of vaccines and health facilities?

Get insights from top experts and leaders in business, non-profits, healthcare, education, and faith, and join participants from nearly 40 countries to discuss these important topics.

Offered both in-person and via Zoom. There is no cost to attend but registration is required.
