

BLACK HISTORY month

Roots of Resistance: The Journey of African American Liberation

Multimedia exhibition of the historical and ongoing struggle of African Americans to achieve freedom, equality, and justice.

EXHIBIT DATES: FEB. 3 - 28, 2025

LOCATION: GALLERY@SUNY BROOME, LIBRARY ROOM 104

Minority Man # 1 designed by Edward N. Wilson

SUNY BROOME

Dine and Learn: “Memory, Roots and Resistance.”

Distinguished lecture by Cheryl Finley, Ph.D.
Walton Endowed Professor and Director, Atlanta University
Center Art History + Curatorial Studies Collective, Spelman College.

“Committed to Memory: The Art of the Slave Ship Icon”

Book signing

Date: Feb. 26, 2025

Time: 6 - 8 p.m.

Location: Second floor of the Library
(REFRESHMENTS SERVED)

Scan me to register for free!

If you need accommodations to participate in this event, please contact the Accessibility Resources Office at aro@sunybroome.edu or 607-778-5150 to discuss your needs ASAP.