Refugee Students, Higher Education, and the Path to Success with

YACOUB
ALJAFFERY

SUNY Broome Community College, in partnership with Binghamton University's Center for Middle East and North Africa Studies, is pleased to host a roundtable talk with Augsburg University's Dr. Yacoub Aljaffery. He will share his personal journey and illustrate how higher education can power one to succeed. His work is a testament that refugee students can, and do, thrive when given the right support and opportunities.

SUNY Broome: May 6 at 4:30 p.m.

LOCATION: BB 110

American Civic Association: May 7 at 6:00 p.m.

LOCATION: 131 Front Street, Binghamton, NY

Events are free and open to the public, all students, faculty, and staff.
