

Help SUNY Broome's international students take on global challenges

January 23, 2015

Students from SUNY Broome have been chosen to attend CGI U 2015 (Clinton Global Initiative University) at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, FL, from March 6 to 8, 2015.

Clinton Global Initiative brings together world leaders to take action into global challenges; President Clinton launched the Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) in 2007 to engage the next generation of leaders on college campuses around the world.

Each year, CGI U hosts a meeting where students, university representatives, topic experts, and celebrities come together to discuss and develop innovative solutions to ultimate global challenges. President Clinton and Chelsea Clinton will host CGI U 2015 at the University of Miami. The meeting will bring together more than 1,100 students to make a difference in CGI U's five focus areas: Education, Environment and Climate Change, Peace and Human Rights, Poverty Alleviation, and Public Health.

In order to apply to attend the CGI U meeting, each student or student group must develop and submit a Commitment to Action. Since the inaugural CGI U meeting at Tulane University in 2008, students have made more than 4,800 Commitments to Action. <http://www.cgIU.org/>

These six international students are fundraising money to pay for traveling and lodging expenses. They will appreciate if anyone out there is willing to help. Fundraising activities will take place on and outside campus.
