

Phi Theta Kappa Chapter President's Photo Chosen for Geico Scholarship

September 17, 2015

SUNY Broome chapter President Heather Coggin took a funny photo of her cat Tony that will be used in a Geico-sponsored scholarship, MEME 4 Money: GEICO's Creativity Scholarship (Deadline: 5 p.m. CT September 25, 2015.)

Phi Theta Kappa International selected Heather's photo. Students applying for the one of five $1,000 scholarships will either pick her photo or one of the six others submitted by students, and use their creativity to write the winning meme.

"I encourage each student of Phi Theta Kappa to apply for this scholarship," Coggin said. "Phi Theta Kappa International has picked some very funny photos, and I look forward to the good laughs. I also gave Tony an award for helping me help students: a piece of catnip."

If you are a Phi Theta Kappa member you can apply for this Scholarship by going to the following web address: <http://www.ptk.org/Scholarships/OtherScholarships/MEME4MoneyGEICOCreativityScholarship.asp>
