

Professor Ericksen honored with the Alice Mills Award

April 23, 2015

Dr. Kristen Ericksen was honored April 18 at the YWCA annual Purse and Passion Fundraiser Brunch, which celebrates the mission of advocacy and service to women and children.

She was presented with the Alice Mills Award, recognizing individuals in the community for outstanding service in the area of violence prevention and advocacy for women. Dr. Ericksen was recognized for her contributions to helping women as a SUNY Broome faculty member, as well as her years of service as a social worker, chemical dependency professional and role model for women.
