

Professor McCauley sends greetings from Mexico

September 18, 2015

Adjunct Professor Jan McCauley, who is in Cuernavaca, Mexico, on a SUNY COIL grant and Alfonso Guevara, who is a professor at Universidad de Monterrey and participating in the same grant, send greetings to SUNY Broome!

Prof. Guevara is currently partnering with Broome's Lynda Carroll in a COIL course bringing together their art and archaeology classes. He visited our campus this summer and debuted his Viajando video installation on our campus.
